Product Description

In modern hotels, in order to enhance the level of guest rooms, many beautiful and elegant bed end towels are laid on the bed - they may seem small, but they can effectively embellish the elegant temperament of the entire bedroom, which is demonstrated by the application of Hotel Luxury Bed Runner. This product can not only be well matched with hotels, but also give ordinary hotels a refined atmosphere like high-end hotels.

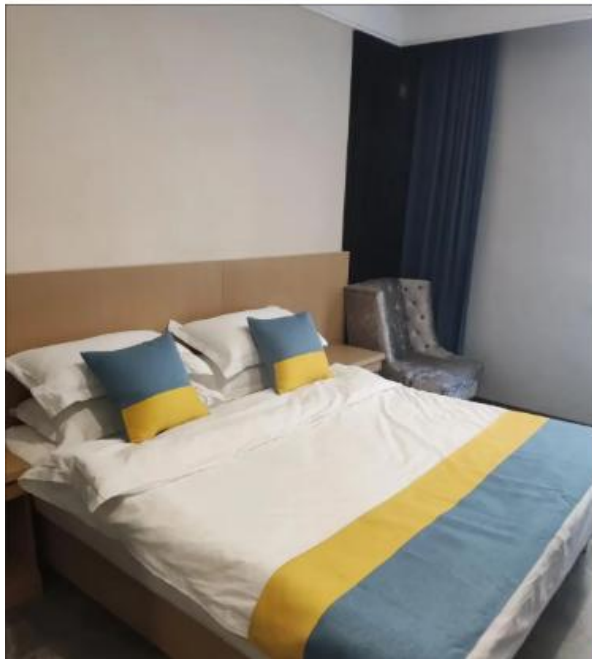

Luxury bed runner hotels are typically woven from materials such as high count high-density pure cotton, luxurious polyester blends, silk blends, and velvet. These materials are not only silky for shopping, skin friendly and breathable, but also exude nobility.

In terms of style design, this Hotel Luxury Bed Runner has been uniquely designed to complement various hotel styles. We usually design palace badges, scroll patterns, and other element patterns in a European classical style; Modern minimalist style with clean geometric lines and solid color design, covering various low saturation high-end colors such as ivory white and dark green, creating a peaceful and soothing modern spatial atmosphere; The new Chinese style custom is called luxury style, using Chinese ink paintings and embroidery and jacquard techniques to create a modern Oriental elegance.

All embroidery of hotel bed runners is precisely controlled by computers, with exquisite patterns, crisp and clean lines, and lifelike patterns, creating stunning bed runners. On the edge, we use workers to manually refine the edging, and every detail is strictly controlled. If you need to add tassels, we can also add tassels for you to showcase high-end features. In addition, we also provide professional size customization services. In addition to the standard sizes of hotel beds (single bed, double bed, King, Queen), we can also adjust the long design according to your needs.

The Luxury Bed Runner Hotel is not only a piece of fabric decoration on the bed, but also a value embodiment that enhances the spatial style and markets the sleeping atmosphere. Let the hotel bed runner be the shining star in your hotel room.
